1. Approval of Minutes*
19 August 1958
(IAC-M-357)

Approved as written.

2. Situation Review

- a. Watch Committee Report
No. 420

Noted.

- b. Watch Committee Report
No. 420-A

Noted. Mr. Dulles stated that he had informed the President regarding the contents of this report on the preceding day.

- c. Review of Sensitive Situations

The members discussed intelligence bearing on the Taiwan Strait situation, including reports regarding the Chinese Communist propaganda treatment of recent developments, and their artillery bombardment and aircraft activities and dispositions in the area.

The Chairman referred to the situation in the Sudan and he and Mr. Cumming also commented on developments in Indonesia.

3. Review of Draft NSCID*
No. 6
(IAC-D-123/2, 25 August)

The Chairman and members discussed the changes in the draft NSCID No. 6 which had been recommended by Dr. Killian and General Hull, as outlined in a memorandum circulated prior to the meeting. (IAC-D-123/2). The members concurred in the suggested changes in paragraph 6 c, subject to the deletion of the phrase appearing in parentheses in the first sentence. The Chairman stated that he would advise Dr. Killian and General Hull of the views of the IAC and USCIB members prior to the NSC meeting on this NSCID.

4. Continuity of Intelligence
Community Functions
Following Establishment of USIB
(IAC-D-112/3; 19 August 1958)

The members of IAC and USCIB noted this memorandum and discussed certain of the proposed actions in some detail. In particular, each of the members expressed his views with respect to the question of whether the new USIB should assign responsibility for COMINT and ELINT matters to a single subcommittee or to two separate subcommittees. After discussion, the members agreed to consider this matter again at the next IAC-USCIB (or USIB) meeting.

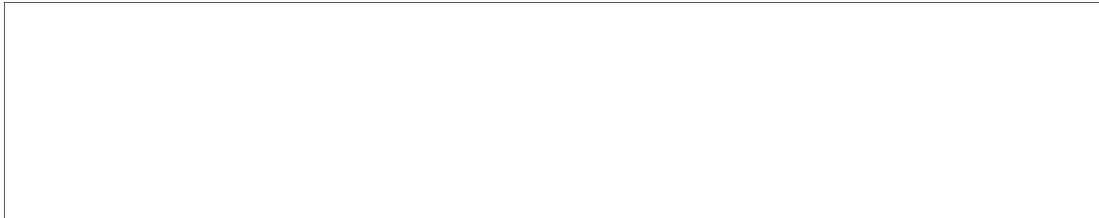

The Chairman noted that the President had concurred in his suggestion that all IAC and USCIB members be invited to attend the NSC meeting at which the new draft NSCIDs 1 through 7 would be reviewed and advised the members as to the time and place of the NSC meeting.
